Esto conlleva que las té cnicas que se emmplean holdn que hacer Uso de la creativitydad con los mãnimos mãnimosGrowth hacking requires, in equal parts, the use of web analysis, development, creativity and curiosity to obtain tangible results in the growth of a company. The perfect hacking ally of startup growth derives from the need to find new forms of growth of a company without making large marketing investments. It consists of the analysis of a product, detecting the characteristics that could generate great growth and make a distribution in the channels that provide a large number of leads with a low budget and in some cases almost null, if it were not for the time used. Asã £, the profile of the growth hacker becomes essential in the world of startups. The new creation companies, without great economic resources, have the need of an expert who is able to implement the growth of their activities without dedicating most of their budget to these marketing campaigns. The new digital marketing mentality is a different way of understanding how to enter a market that defines objectives and increase a company at a higher level. From there it has insisted that it is not a simple combination of techniques and tools, but rather a mentality, that of obtaining oil from any opportunity or circumstance. In conclusion, growth hacking is that new way of collecting digital marketing in which, by adding several technicians, we try to put solutions to the great challenge for new company projects, reaching a large number of users. Characteristics of the growth hacker profile The web analysis is a fundamental part because we will only know how to work and not. The growth hacker must be able to choose those vital musicians able to serve as indicators of the hygusting.
